CHRISTINE PETER
KALEIDOSCOPE CONCEPT OWNER

Christine Peter is a true Southern California native, raised in a small beach town outside of San Diego and now living in Huntington Beach with her husband of 29 years and two dogs. Her passions include taking her dogs to the beach, boating, craft fairs, traveling, and most importantly, working in design. With over 25 years in the industry, Christine has held many roles starting at the dealer from project management, director of sales, and working management at the manufacturer level. Seven years ago, she opened her own design practice, Kaleidoscope Concept, which is made up of interior designers, project managers, construction, and an architect. She has been a member of IIDA for over 17 years and has served on the local City Center and Southern California Executive board as VP of Advocacy for six years and currently Co-VP of EDI. Furthermore, Christine has a passion for mentoring students entering the industry and for supporting their career growth, and serves on the Orange Coast Community College Interior Design Council.

DESIGN AWARDS JURY

MARIE ALBRECHT

CSO

INTERIOR DESIGN STUDIO

MANAGER

An award-winning designer with over a decade of experience, Marie's approach to bring a client's vision to life in a user-friendly, exciting, and engaging space is as creative as it is technical. With a focus in workplace design, extensive user research sets the stage for the built environment to tell a story rich with details that enhance company culture and work process. Her love of design stems from the knowledge that each new project provides a canvas to positively influence human interaction and behavior through the creativity inspired by an understanding of her client's unique goals.

Marie graduated from Rocky Mountain College of Art + Design with a BFA in Interior Design and joined CSO in 2016. CSO, founded in 1961, is one of Indiana's largest, most reputable firms for architecture and interior design.
