

Mike Johnson II is an Associate Principal and Director of Interior Design at Hickok Cole in Washington, DC. Licensed as both an architect and interior designer, his award-winning designs have focused on providing creative solutions for interior spaces that support health, wellness, culture, equity, diversity, inclusion, and brand. His belief is that design is a thoughtful process through captivating storytelling which creates a unique solution for each client. Mike's clients include corporate workplace design, trade floor facilities, higher education and building repositioning throughout the country. Mike is on IIDA's International Board of Directors as a Vice President, served as a Past President of IIDA's Mid-Atlantic Chapter, Co-founded the Mid-Atlantic Chapters leadership development program for young professionals and was featured in IIDA's Perspective magazine article "The Instagram Effect".